Role Responsibilities

Are you passionate about public land recreation and committed to fostering positive relationships within the recreation community? Join our dynamic team as a seasonal Recreation Engagement Officer!

In this role, you will serve as a vital link between the Department and the public, playing a key role in providing information and assistance to the public regarding access and responsible use of public land and protected areas. You will actively contribute to the delivery of the Crown Land Vision and public lands education and engagement. Your responsibilities will include conducting patrols of known recreation sites, speaking with the public and stakeholders, collecting recreation use data, and performing routine maintenance of trails, staging areas, signs, and kiosks.

As you support the day-to-day operations of the Recreation Management program, you'll have the opportunity to demonstrate your technical background and skills, progressively taking on more responsibilities as you showcase your proficiency in natural resource management.

The position requires an individual who can deliver a public recreation outreach and engagement field program with minimal direct supervision, often working in remote locations and adverse weather conditions.

Your contributions will extend to supporting the ongoing planning, development, and facilitation of regional recreation programs. Additionally, you'll be actively engaged in fostering positive relationships within the recreation community, promoting the government's recreation goals and priorities. This involves educating the public on responsible stewardship, ensuring compliance with legislation, and maintaining a regular visible presence in the field.

Our North Region has vast spaces with both structured and unstructured recreation, a network of multi-use trails, and random camping. Your office is the lakes, forests and remote landscapes that make up the boreal forest and Eastern Slopes of the Rocky Mountains!

Our South Region boasts many designated trails, Public Land Use Zones, structured recreation, with many back-country opportunities along the Eastern Slopes of the Rocky Mountains.

Come Join Our North or South Lands Alberta Team!

APS Competencies

Competencies are behaviors that are essential to reach our goals in serving Albertans. We encourage you to have an in depth understanding of the competencies that are required for this opportunity and to be prepared to demonstrate them during the recruitment process.
